ROOKIE OF THE YEAR AWARD

The American Heart Association just had their awards ceremony for the year. Not only did Sargent Elementary almost double our school record fundraising amount this year, we were also awarded the "Rookie of the Year" award. Only 5 schools out of over 1,000 elementary schools received this recognition. If you see an elementary kiddo, tell them congratulations and thank you for supporting such an awesome cause! It truly was a whole school effort!

FY 2024 PRELIMINARY BUDGET PRESENTED

The initial budget for the 2023-2024 fiscal year was presented and discussed. Projected revenues, known increased costs, as well as other considerations for the budget were reviewed. The budget will be considered for approval at the regular meeting on June 26th. Interested taxpayers may inspect the proposed budget and register any objections at any time prior to final adoption in June. Call the district administration office at 719-852-4023 for information.

OTHER ITEMS

The financial reports for April, minutes of the previous meeting, and two requisitions were approved. Johnson Controls for $6,445.84 for the High School alarm board replacement and RLH Engineering Company for $5,870.00 for AHERA Reinspection and management plan. The Board approved retention bonus for all returning staff that will be paid in September. Also approved were four new positions K-12 Principal, Dean of Students & Athletic Director, School Social Worker, and Infinite Campus & CDE Data Collection District. Support.
